From the Editor

In this issue of the Finn Camp Newsletter there are two articles about the Finlandia Foundation (FFN). At the Semi-Annual meeting last fall, Dan Linick proposed that Finn Camp should become a FFN chapter; after some discussion the motion was tabled to the Annual Meeting to be held in April. I asked Naomi Petainen, who has done fine work on the newsletter, to write a story about FFN, and with her husband Kai's help she generated an informative review. Her article is just a fact-based review of the FFN, it does not take any position on whether Finn Camp should become a chapter. I also suggested to Dan Linick that he could write an article advocating FFN membership, and it is also included. I hope these two articles can help Finn Camp members decide how they feel about the issue.

The newsletter has not, in my admittedly short experience, been used to advocate on issues that are decided in our membership meetings, but I would like to encourage our members to do so. If you are planning to propose a motion at the April meeting, consider writing up an article for the April newsletter advocating your position. The act of writing will help to organize and clarify your proposal, and you will inform the membership of what to expect at the meeting. You may even convince more members to attend the meeting, which would be healthy for the association. If you wish to write such an article, be aware that it should be submitted by the 15th of the month prior to its publication, in this case March 15th.

FINLANDIA FOUNDATION NATIONAL

by Dan Linick

Over the past 100 years we have been slowly losing Finnish culture. Very few members are directly from Finland or speak Finnish. Finn Camp's knowledge of Finnish composers, performers, current events, consulate, etc is almost non-existent. Does anyone in our membership know who Sibelius was? He was Finland's greatest composer and he is credited with helping Finland develop a national identity during its struggle for independence from Russia.

His birthday is celebrated in Finland and his picture has been on the Finnish currency. I had no idea who Sibelius was until Finlandia Foundation brought a classic trio to the Dance hall to perform Finnish works by Finnish composers other than Sibelius.

The FFN has online meetings with different chapters discussing which projects have been successful and unsuccessful. Interactions with other Finnish organizations will improve Finn Camp's long term viability.

We have kept up with the times by building a larger sauna, forming a Future Planning Committee to keep place with issues that arose as subdivisions were built around Finn Camp. We out-sourced tree removal when the magnitude of the tree removal project became too great for us to handle internally. Becoming an affiliated chapter of FFN, is Finn Camp keeping up with the times. The Fall Newsletter, which is similar to a magazine, had an interview with John Koskinen who is the former head of the I.R.S. In the article Mr. Koskinen gives advice to young people.

FFN sponsors the Soiva International Music camp, which is part of Concordia College in Minnesota. Kids 11-19 can take a summertime music program. FFN sponsors the Salolampe Language camp in Minnesota. Kids can take summer programs and learn the Finnish language and culture.

and provides travel expenses for the lecturer or performer to travel to affiliated chapters. FFN provides grants for projects and events at Finn Camp and scholarships for our kids at Finn Camp. I have talked to members of the Finnish Center in Farmington, and the Finnish Theme Committee of Hancock, and performers of the year and all have had good things to say about FFN. I have met several of the members of FFN and found them to be good-hearted, professional with a mission to spread the Finnish culture in the U.S. The FFN raises money for grants and scholarships. There is truly no negative connotation associated with this giving organization.

Want to connect with more Finnish-Americans? Check out the Finlandia Foundation National.

In 1953, the Finlandia Foundation National (FFN) was established by nine first generation Finnish-Americans who immigrated to Southern California. After Field Secretary, Yrjö A. Paloheimo, garnered financing from several Finnish-American communities, he collaborated to rebuild postwar Finland. Next, he and his colleagues concentrated on uniting all Finnish-Americans with "A cultural handshake across the sea".

Their mission continues today as the FFN works to sustain and support Finnish culture. Now, there are fifty-eight chapters in twenty-five states representing almost all areas of the United States. Run by donations as a private philanthropic organization, the FFN networks with local chapters, rallies multigenerational Finnish-Americans, outreaches to recent Finnish immigrants, and raises scholarships for Finnish cultural programs, relief funds, Finnish-

American artists, and Finnish-American youth.

Once a year, FFN offers $5,000 grants for highquality projects involving Finnish-American preservation of history, art or culture. Along with grants, FFN awards yearly $1,000-3,000 academic, music and art scholarships to university freshman who attend an accredited college, maintain a 3.0 GPA and can prove their Finnish ancestry. In 2018, they gifted $105,223 total to thirty-seven scholarships, funded thirty organizations amounting to $85,325 and spent $67,176 on activities. Some of their recent contributions went to Eero Saarinen's 2021 documentary, "The Architect Who Saw the Future", and the National Nordic Museum of Seattle's exhibition, "Among Forests and Lakes". Some of the activities they sponsor include an international youth music camp called "Sovia", a few special music programs, a covid relief fund, and a memorial ski commemorating Finland's Winter War of march 1940.

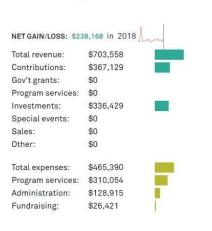

A young leaders' board was formed in 2021 to inspire younger Finnish-Americans to get involved in their heritage. Last year, a Finnposium was held over FFN YouTube consisting of webinars, programs, lectures, chats, and musical presentations. This new virtual platform allows FFN to publicize and promote all activities. It also has connected Finnish-Americans more than any other time, building a fantastic benefit for the next generation of Finnish-Americans.

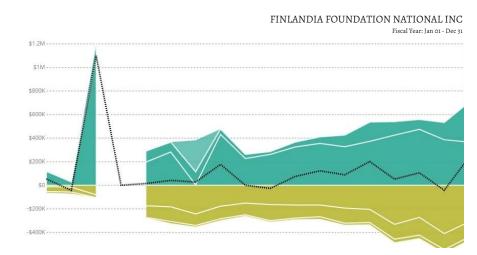

If interested in FFN's operations, scholarships, history or current and future programs, see the website below.

Attention all committees: The Board would like for you to communicate with us regarding events, projects and fund-raises you are planning. We would like to support your endeavors and projects and would like to make sure that multiple committees are not planning on tackling the same area to prevent overlapping, or we can connect those committees so they can work together. The social director should also be contacted prior to scheduling events to prevent conflicts with other events or activities.

Trash Rules: Dumpsters are for members use only! Do not put in large or long items that may wedge or jam the dumpster when being tipped into the garbage truck. No major dumping on festival weekends. No overfilling. No furniture, propane tanks, wood, construction materials or other large items are to be left in, by or around the dumpster. Large items can be placed at roadside near the tractor garage on Tuesdays for Wednesday pickup. The dumpster at Sun Lake is for Finn Camp projects only. No personal or camp debris is allowed.

Facility Reservations: Any member interested in renting the clubroom, dancehall, ravintola, or beach should contact the social director, Joni Sennhenn, at 248-882-4626. Also, all committees should verify venue availability with the social director prior to scheduling events as private rentals may conflict.

Camp rentals are handled through the Board of Directors. Any member looking to rent their camp should complete a camp rental form and submit it to the Board prior to the rental date.

If you've ever had a Finnish friend -as I have—who irons shœlaces and pillowcases, then you know that Marie Kondo, the Japanese woman famous for her tips on order and decluttering, has nothing on her Finnish counterpart, Mari Kontonen!

Finland, the country where for four consecutive years citizens have been named the happiest people in the world by the UN World Happiness Report, is considered safe and trustworthy. But one shouldn't overlook the happiness that comes from a clean and tidy home environment.

Here at Finn Camp everyone loves the sauna and the feeling of joy that comes from being steam cleaned. The Sisu Sisters want your happiness to extend beyond the sauna to the order in your home and camp. With less stuff, you will see and appreciate your favorite things more and it will give you peace of mind. Just think of the rag rugs that mummo and täti (grandma and aunt) used to make: wasn't that a great Finnish example of how to rid closets of old clothes and turn them into something useful, even beautiful?

Now's the time to start your spring cleaning and help the Sisu Sisters get ready to celebrate Mari Kontonen Day! Donate your vanha tavara (castoffs) to Finn Camp for our garage sale. It will make you one of the happiest people in the world!

Mari Kontonen Day Garage Sale! June 4, 2022 9 am to 3 pm Finn Camp Dance Hall

Please drop off donations at the Dance Hall on June 3rd from 5pm to 9 pm or by prior arrangement during the previous week with Tammie King at 248 624 6691 or tammie@tammieking.com.

All proceeds from donations will be used for beautification projects at Finn Camp
